The undersigned submit to their friends and customers the following announcement and determination.

Music at half price at SCHUBERTH & CO.'8,

539 Broadway.

Music was at all times an essential part of a thorough education, but of late it has become more and more so, and through the many opportunities to hear good music, and the facilities with which music and musical instruction may be obtained, it has become an indispensable thing with the million. We agree fully with the vecdict of a musical paper, "Folias and negro music is dead." Yes, it is dead and gone, and must give way to productions of a higher order. This indisputable fact induced some publishers to put their negro music, dances and reprints of all sorts at half price.

The public has new fathomed the secret of the profusion of these taste-destroying productions—they had their time. On the other hand the sale of the so-called reprints has been nearly stopped, becoming waste paper in consequence of their incorrectness and their often wretched substitution for the original. Those reprints are new rapicity getting out of market, the price of them (calculating the page. It 6½ cents, being higher than our originals, which are sold from 3 to 5 cents a page. The reduction of price is reprints, nearly equal new to the original editions, shows palpably the impossibility of competing any longer with these originals.

Griginal editions, shows palpably the impossibility of competing any longer with these originals.

Griginal editions are those bought from the composer, the proofs corrected by himself.

Reprints are editions which the publishers get up without payment to the aution, or asking his consect.

This explanation we see to the public in order to be perfectly understend. The extalogue of our original editions are those bought from the composer, carefully published during thirty years, has been considerably plumhered for several years, has been

CPLENDID BALL FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR.—

The first annual ball of the Astor House Club will be given at Niblo's saloon, on Wednesday evening, the I'th inst. The officers and employees of the Astor House, in giving this, their first annual ball, believe that they cannot devote the proceeds thereof to a more worthy object, than to the relief of the poor and distressed residents of this city; and to enable them to carry out their intention, and swell the proceeds of the entertainment, they rely upon the hearty co-operation of this friends and fellow-citizens. The committee beg leave to assure the public, that the ball will be second to none, in elegance or respectability, that has been or may be given this season; and they feel confident that it will detract nothing from the pleasures of the evening, to those who may attend, to know that the small sum that they may have expended for the ontertainment, will through the agency of the Association for the Benefit of the Foor, serve to carry joy and gladness to many now wretched and desolate households. Dodworth's band is engaged for the occasion. Tickets $2, admitting a gwaleman and ladies, to be had at the office and bar of the Astor House, Metropolitan Hotel, and of H. Pike, Esq.
